

2010-2011 Orange County Bar Association Elections

OCBA Executive Council

(3 Seats Available)

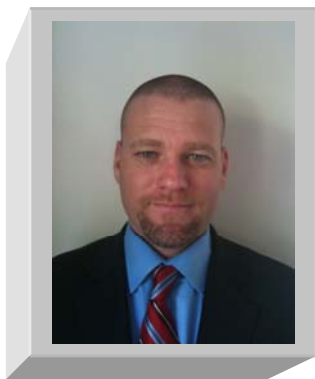

(Alphabetical)

Wiley S. Boston

The OCBA is a special organization because it has a remarkable number of dedicated attorneys that selflessly volunteer their time and expertise for the continued good of the community and the Bar. Our organization is defined by the good works performed every day by members like you, most notably the contributions of attorney volunteers providing indispensable pro bono legal services via the Legal Aid Society. There are many direct benefits to Bar membership, but of more significance, the services provided by our members benefit the profession, and the community as a whole. Acting together, the OCBA has touched thousands of lives for the better and will continue to do so.

Over the past year as OCBA Membership Chairman, three years as a member of the boards of the OCBA and the OCBA Foundation, and one year as President of the Young Lawyers Section, I have worked hard to help grow the OCBA membership and advance the professional ideals of an open and inclusive OCBA. I would be humbled by the opportunity to continue to represent you on the OCBA Executive Council. Thank you for your consideration.

Marc A. Consalo

My name is Marc Consalo and I have been practicing in Orlando, Florida as an attorney since 1999. I am a partner in the law firm of Dicembre, Nace, and Consalo. My practice focuses on trial advocacy and appellate work in the fields of criminal and family law. Currently, I am serving on the OCBA's Family Law Executive Committee as well as being a member of the Central Florida Association of Criminal Defense Lawyers. Additionally, I have served as a Guardian Ad Litem through the OCBA's Pro Bono Service Program since 2003. In that capacity I have been able to act as the voice for children caught up in Dependency and Termination of Parental Rights cases for many years. In fact, I have been recognized by the OCBA for Outstanding Pro Bono Service in 2006, 2007, and 2009. It would be my honor to serve on the Committee and have the ability to reach out to the public in such a positive way. I want to thank those who have encouraged me to run for this position and am honored at the possibility of serving the fellow attorneys of the county in this manner.

Richard Scott Dellinger

I would be happy to serve as a member of the Executive Committee of the Orange County Bar. I have been a member of the Orange County Bar for the past 11 years. I am the immediate past President of the Federal Bar Association-Orlando Chapter and former Chairman of the Orange County Citizens' Review Board. I have provided pro bono service as a Guardian Ad Litem in numerous cases, served as a Teen Court Judge, served as a Citizens Dispute Mediator and worked as a pro bono attorney for domestic relations matters. I am a partner in the Litigation Group of Lowndes, Drosdick, Doster, Kantor & Reed, P.A. I work in all areas of litigation in all courts, including business litigation, domestic relations, commercial litigation, and wrongful death. I also serve as a member of the Criminal Justice Act Panel, accepting appointments to criminal cases for indigent defendants in Federal Court. I was elected a 2006 and 2008 "Legal Elite Up & Comer" for Florida Trend Magazine. I was raised in a small town in North Carolina and I received my undergraduate and law degrees from the University of North Carolina. I am married to Alisa Turner Dellinger and we have a 16 month old son, Rhys Crosby Dellinger. I like to run marathons and ride my bicycle.

Mary Ann Etzler

Sometimes it takes a leader to push a person to their next level. Mary Ann Etzler is that leader. Amid her acceptance into and graduation from the 2009 Central Florida Partnership's Political Leadership Institute; her participation on the CFAWL board since 2000 and current Presidency; 2010 Presidency of the Christian Service Center and appointment to the 2010 Commission to Improve Civil Justice, Mary Ann makes time to notice the gifts in others, and encourage others to pursue those gifts. Mary Ann is a "just get it done" leader. In other words, she would rather help others accomplish their goals than to be noticed for her own accomplishments. Before graduating from law school in 1995, Mary Ann was a police officer at a time when women were less valued. Mary Ann has dedicated her life to protecting, defending and advocating for others. As an OCBA representative, you can expect the same from Mary Ann: hard work, dedication to assisting organizational and members' needs, commitment to her community, and a pledge to help identify ways that might provide additional value through our OCBA membership.

R. Gavin MacKinnon

I would appreciate your support and vote for election to the Orange County Bar Association's Executive Council so that I may have the opportunity to advance the OCBA's membership interests. Since the beginning of my law practice in Florida, I have been active with the OCBA, starting with the Young Lawyer's Section, where I was elected to consecutive two-year terms to the Board of Directors. During my tenure I Co-Chaired the annual Golf Tournament and oversaw the annual Scholarship for several years. In 2005 I was honored by the Legal Aid Society with the New Attorney Award of Excellence for my involvement as a GAL and pro bono work. Participation with the OCBA provides an opportunity to enhance the quality of our profession and standing with the community. With this election for Executive Counsel, you are able to select among many deserving candidates. I ask that you consider giving me this opportunity and I will work to further strengthen our legal community, provide greater access to justice and participate in fun and interesting opportunities with our members. Thank you for your consideration.

Nicholas A. Shannin

Election time. 7 great candidates, only 3 spots. Who are you going to vote for? Allow me to put in this pitch to re-elect your three board members who currently serve at-large and who have all agreed to re-up and serve the Bar for another term. I admit freely, this is a very self-serving request, since I am one of the three seeking re-election. But it is also born from a belief that having served with Wiley Boston and Bill Umansky, our Board is richer for the differing talents they bring. We can collectively bring a knowledge of what we are trying to accomplish, what has worked – and what hasn't. If re-elected, we will form a stronger Bar using that knowledge.

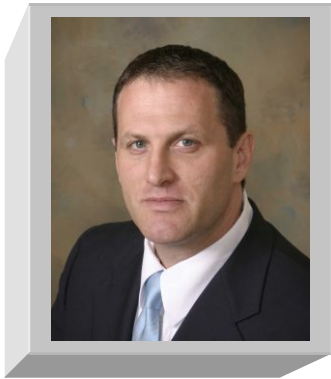

My background supports my claim of Bar-related experience. Roles I have been honored to serve as: Young Lawyer Section President; Legal Aid Society Board President; OCBA Foundation President; Chair of the Gala, Law Week, Afternoon-in-the-Courthouse and more. As an appellate specialist and a mediator, I bring a unique perspective to locating problems and finding win-win solutions to solving them. I would be honored to use those skills serving the Bar for three more years. Thank you for your support!

William "Bill" D. Umansky – "thelawman"

I have had the pleasure of serving you as member of the Orange County Bar Association Executive Council for the past three years and would like the opportunity to serve you again as I enjoy helping members of this great bar take advantage of what our organization has to offer. In the past I was co-chair of the OCBA Criminal Law Committee and have worked on various other committees, such as the Orange County Bar Foundation, Gala and long range planning. I am also currently co-chairing the Social Committee that has brought you the Poker and Trivia tournaments, as well as the Joint Happy Hour and Wine and Cheese.

I really enjoy working for legal organizations and have been fortunate to serve on several board of directors, including the Central Florida Criminal Defense Association, Orange County Legal Aid Society, and Orange County Teen Court. I chaired the Breakfast of Champions this past year where we raised funds for our sister organization Legal Aid!

In addition, I am active in Rotary and serve as a volunteer judge in Teen Court as well as serve on the board of Teen Alternatives that raises money toward college scholarships for teenagers aspiring to become future lawyers. I volunteer with Pop Warner Football and have been a YMCA basketball coach for several years.

I would really appreciate another opportunity to serve you guys and so I am asking you to vote for the Lawman!
